Notification (30th ASRB Meeting)

Agenda Item # 8: Thesis Delay Fine Policy for PhD Students

Director, Graduate Studies pointed out that board in its 23rd meeting held on January 31, 2018 approved that:

“PhD students who have submitted their final theses in OGSR for internal / external evaluation, will not be charged any dues” (w.e.f Fall-16)

He presented the data of PhD students (Intake 2014 & 2015) who could not submit their completed thesis within regular period of time (04 Years). He requested that board may please decide a thesis delay fine (similar to thesis delay fine for MS Programs) for PhD students who do not submit their completed theses for local and foreign evaluation within regular period of time.

Decision

Board after discussion approved that one year (02 semesters) as extra period after regular / minimum period of PhD program (3-Years) to encounter unforeseen conditions (whatsoever) in the way of thesis completion without dues.

After expiry of one-year grace period, Rs. 12,000/- each semester will be charged as thesis delay fine (double to MS fine) and Rs. 3,000/- as examination charges (Total Rs. 15,000/- each semester).
